Merchants' Division Speards Drive To Open City's Christmas Shopping

Under the direction of the Merchants' Division of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce and co-sponsored by Belle Glade Jaycees the Christmas shopping season gets underway Friday in a big way with a Christmas party planned for 5 o'clock downtown area. Complete details are included in another story.

A bountiful assortment of gifts of all sizes and shapes for every member of any family have been included on the shelves of Belle Glade stores. Through the chamber's Christmas planning committee, a comprehensive advertising program for many of the merchants has been included in this week's issue. For ever wider coverage of advertising, The Herald has printed 10,000 circulars for distribution by the Merchants Committee to outlying areas of the Glades.

The circular promotion was planned and participated in by the Belle Glade's progressive merchants who hope to make this their biggest and best Christmas season by offering quality merchandise at attractive prices. The stores will be open until 9 p. m. Friday for shopping convenience. Beginning Dec. 11 through Christmas, stores will be open each night until 9 p. m. for greater convenience to shoppers. The chamber's committee chairman, William Bazemore, stressed the whole idea of the Christmas party was to make the Christmas shopping season a family affair. While the children enjoy the arrival of the snow and Santa, parents are invited to visit stores, see the array of clothes and the Christmas decorations which will be ready Friday.

For the first time in the city's history, Bazemore pointed out, shoppers will have complete and adequate parking facilities at the shopping center parking lot which may be used by all shoppers, anytime.

Over 14 B&E Cases Solved By Arrests

Breaking and entering cases dating back to May of 1958 have been cleared by the arrest of eight young Negroes at Belle Glade due to the alertness of the Belle Glade Police Department, according to Police Chief Charles Goodlett.

The apprehension of a 16-year-old boy sleeping in a vehicle at the loading zone on W. 5th St. early Saturday morning by Police Sgt. Art Folger and Patrolman Gene Duncan led to the implication of eight Negroes in custody and three others now being sought.

The arrests include the solution of the breaking and entering cases on police records in the past three weeks with one exception. When the 16-year-old was searched, a .25 caliber automatic was found on (Continued On Page Eight)

FHA Financing Seen Step Closer Following Meeting

Application for appraisers and inspectors for the proposed Certified Agency Program of the Federal Housing Administration were issued at a special meeting Tuesday at Belle Glade Municipal County Club where FHA officials from the Coral Gables office met with community representatives from three counties to discuss a new plan of FHA to facilitate the securing of FHA mortgages in a five-county area.

On hand to explain the CAP were C. R. Henry, area insurance program advisor for FHA, and P. H. Rohmet, chief appraiser for FHA at Coral Gables. Henry explained that the Certified Agency Program was designed to bring the benefits of FHA programs to smaller communities not immediately available through regular FHA channels. Through this program insured mortgage lending speeds up by taking advantage of a local administrator which is certified by FHA to process the loans.

A snowman building contest, Christmas car singing, the lighting of the city's holiday lights, a street dance and the arrival of Santa Claus are the main attractions for a massive Christmas party sponsored by the Belle Glade Junior Chamber of Commerce in association with the Merchants' Division of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce which begins Friday at 6:30 in the W. T. Grant Co., parking lot on N. W. 2nd St. and South Canal Street.

With the cooperation of the City of Belle Glade, merchants and other organizations, the Jaycees have arranged for nearly six hours of entertainment for youngsters and adults, too, as the group helps the Belle Glade merchants kick-off their annual Christmas shopping season for the city.

For the first time in history some five tons of snow will be spread in Belle Glade on the plant 250-car parking lot for a snowman building contest for prizes. Hayden Williams Ice Co., will spray the powdered ice on the lot where youngsters can engage in a building contest for prizes of $7.50, $5.00 and $2.50. Rules will be announced at the scene just before the contest which begins at 6:30.

Judging will be for originality only. Youngsters, bring your own eyes, hats, buttons, etc., for snowman decoration. Following this, about 7 p. m. the First Baptist Church choir, under the direction of Leo James, and the Belle Glade High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Merry Terry, will present a Christmas program. Ministers from the city's churches have been invited to participate.

Just before Santa's arrival via city fire truck (the helicopter couldn't make it) the multi-colored lights on Main and 5th St., and Avenue A will be turned on. Four bicycles will be given away to Santa's arrival.

See Page Eight this issue for coupon to be taken to a Belle Glade merchant to be included in the drawing.

After Santa arrives there'll be a candy and gum distribution as the Old Elf greets the youngsters and gets an earful from them. Avenue A will be blocked off from 2nd to 3rd St. for a street dance with the music of The Rhythm Rockers from 8 p. m. until midnight.

Bill Aspey and R. H. Cooper are chairman of the event. They acknowledged donations from Florida National Bank at Belle Glade, Everglades Federal Savings and Loan and the merchants' division for the party they played. Street lighting was installed by Belle Glade Water Department through the cooperation of Florida Power & Light Co.

According to the station's reports, the period Nov. 1 through Feb. 28 normally has the lightest rainfall of the year.

Mail It Early Post Office Says

"Christmas is just around the corner," Postmaster George P. Ryan stated, he offers the following tips to assure prompt and safe delivery of Christmas cards and gifts.

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly, or print plainly. Avoid abbreviations.
2. Use the four-cent letter rate for Christmas cards, assuring forwarding of the letter if the addressee has moved.
3. Return if the card is undeliverable.
4. Don't mail money in Christmas gifts or letters. Use Postal money orders or checks.
5. When making a large mailing, such as Christmas cards, separate letters into "local" and "out-of-town" bundles. "Local" and "out-of-town" wrappers for this purpose will be furnished to all patrons by the end of the week.
6. Pack and wrap gifts securely. Cushioning material should be placed on all sides of the Christmas card. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and tied with strong twine.
7. Delicate gifts, such as glass, MUST be marked "Fragile" and "food stuffs" subject to spoilage should be marked "perishable".
8. Insure parcels. Register letters of real value. Where only proof of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value use certified mail.
9. Use combination mail where a letter or message, such as a gift tag, is to be enclosed inside a Christmas package.
10. Mail Christmas cards and parcels early to avoid the last-minute rush and waiting in line at the post office. The best time to avoid crowds at stamp windows in most post offices are before 10 and between 1:30 and 2:30.

If you don't know the answer to a mailing problem ask. Every postal employee is happy to answer questions on postal rules and regulations.

November Permits Show Small Boost

Construction values at Belle Glade increased $48,525 in November over the previous month, as permit valuations reached $126,600 last month, according to Building Inspector W. L. Cunningham.

The permits brought the total for 1959 to $2,032,535, a decrease of $174,816 from 1958's first 11 months. Major reason for the decrease was the city's $600,000 sewer permit last year. Home construction and new businesses this year have almost made up the difference.

Thirty-seven permits were issued in November for fees of $48,525. Total valuation of three home permits was $37,000, two new businesses added $42,000 and two duplexes were valued at $10,000 each. There was also a church permit issued for the Church of the Lord Jesus at 577 S. W. 8th St., for $12,000. Repair and additions permit, sewer connections, plumbing and an awning permit made up the balance of the November permits.

Mr. And Mrs. Jones Now Reported OK

Herald Publisher-Editor Luther Jones and his wife, Ruby, were burned late Wednesday Nov. 25, in a peculiar gas heater explosion at their home in N. W. Ave. E. Both are reported doing well with their recovery at Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

Both are under treatment and observation. Mrs. Jones is expected to be released by the weekend while Mr. Jones will remain about another week. Belle Glade Fire Department confined the damage to one bedroom of the Jones home.

Low Temperatures Didn't Hurt Much

First low temperatures of the fall season were experienced Sunday night when temperatures reached 30-31 at Belle Glade but no frost. Out from the city scattered frost was reported, and only in the Immokalee area the frost came with any appreciable damage.

Supplies of most produce commodities were reduced, however, many industry spokesmen expressed a feeling that the curtailed yields were the result of rain rather than any of the first cold weather.

Pittman reported 321 carload equivalents moving during the past week by truck and rail, the only group seriously affected by the present situation, according to Market News Manager, F. C. Carolindes.

We Had Turkey Too Osceola School Children Boasted

"We had turkey, too," the children of Osceola School could boast last Wednesday, November 25, while their parents were working in the packing houses of the Glades Area processing vegetables for the Thanksgiving tables of the nation.

This delightful Thanksgiving treat was the result of thoughtful planning by individuals and groups. Mrs. Jane Lancing, lunchroom supervisor of Palm Beach County Schools, furnished the turkey, Mr. C. T. Taggart, of the Central Elementary School in Belle Glade cooked the big birds. Mrs. Ruth Wedgeworth and the Sunshine Sisters Sunday School Class of the junior department of the First Baptist Church furnished other typical Thanksgiving foods to make a complete meal for the children.

Mrs. Margaret Mosley, Glades Supervisor of Migrant Education, Mrs. Ruth Irvin, and the teachers of Osceola School prepared the food and served it attractively to the children.

City Manager C. B. Talmadge gave a detailed picture of the work done for the city and went on to point out the advantages to be gained soon and in the future.

Expected work inspection this week by the resident engineer, and following that, the area can be opened for house connections and reach the major rooming houses and multi-room apartment structures on S. W. Ave. E.

The work for the city which the contractor completed will mean two things: (1) better water supplies at a better pressure and better fire protection for the south section of the city which is rapidly growing, and (2) at least 34 more connections at present for the city's sewerage system.

The C. T. Stockton spokesman estimated that the road construction was 70% completed. He agreed that rain caused the only delay and that no other obstructions were preventing the completion of the work.

... THOUGHT

"THEN SHALL COME THE END"

Matthew XXIV, 14

By Rev. August Koerber

We are at the threshold of the last month of the year. Many devout souls will be thinking of the end of all things. When Jesus predicted the destruction of the beautiful temple in Jerusalem there were but few that believed him. So here are some today who refuse to believe that the world will some day come to an end. Still it is a truth "The world passes away and the last there."

For some this is a disturbing truth. But not for them who have committed their souls to Jesus Christ. For them it is a precious truth: "He that doth the will of God abideth forever." This glorious promise may be shared by all men. For, as Jesus declared: "This Gospel shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations." Those who accept it have the assurance: "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved."

It is true that there will be temptations that will lead many to destruction. There will be false teachers who will claim divine authority; there will be suffering and persecutions for Christians; there will be war, pestilence; earthquakes to terrify and dishearten men; there will be attractions to lead some astray. It will be only by the grace of God, that those who have accepted his love in faith will endure to the end.

critics of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing" (107, 21).

Also included in the readings was the opening sentence from the preface of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To those leaning on the sustaining Infinite, to-day is big with blessings" (vii).

Auditorium on the Pahokee road at 3:15 p. m. His subject will be "Christian Science: The Healing Comforter."

Now on nationwide tour as member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Glendon was a moderator recently on several television programs in the series "How Christian Science Heals."

A native of Denver, Colorado, he became interested in Christian Science as a boy. He withdrew from business in 1934 to devote his full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. During World War II, he was active as a Christian Science War-time Minister.

Thanksgiving weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Freedlund were Mr. and Mrs. H. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Athow of Fern Park. Guests on Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hart, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hart, Jr., and children of Coral Gables.

"PRAYER WILL MEET ANY EMERGENCY" WSWN Sundays 12:45 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith and children, spent Thanksgiving with their parents in their home town of Williston, North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wood, Jr., and family were Thanksgiving guests of her mother, Mrs. C. E. Williamson in Miami.

A healing message for you and your neighbor...

The healing truths of the Bible are as practical and available today as they were in the time of Christ Jesus and the Apostles.

The present availability of healing through prayer or spiritual means alone is explained in all Christian Science lectures. Whether you know much or very little about Christian Science, a lecture will interest you because it will explain how prayer can help you in everyday living.

A thankful multitude have been healed through prayer of apparently hopeless troubles and diseases. Learn what this can mean for you by attending this free, public lecture entitled:

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE: THE HEALING COMFORTER" by RICHARD L. GLENDON, C. S. of Los Angeles, California. Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

The ladies at our church held their annual social Friday night and my old lady reports it was a humdinger. I pity the poor souls that wasn't able to attend. A bunch of women at a church social can talk a blue-eyed devil's blarney faster'n a hungry hog can eat a ear of corn.

They've been holding these socials once a year since way back in 1940. Of course the women out here ain't what they were in 1940. Some of 'em are two or three years older. But then added years has made 'em much better talkers, according to the rumors I got, and at these socials they hardly stop to get a breath of fresh air, one of the few things most of 'em ain't got. They can't be telling the truth more'n half the time because as much as they talk there ain't that much truth.

My old lady said they voted unanimously to write to the Federal Communications Commission and demand a special television channel for housewives on Saturday afternoon. They claim right now, for instance, that they can't get nothing but football. It seems to me this is a mighty bad attitude for church women to take, being again such character-building enterprises.

My old lady went to the affair wearing a hat, so I reckon all of 'em did likewise. It must have been a sight in this world. The one my old lady had on when she left - well, just between me and you, Mister Editor, I've saw better looking ladies on a pressure cooker.

I see by the papers where a delegation of Indians is pestering like a pack of dogs that scolding picture of the Indian would look like a feller from the Revenue Department and the victim like a taxpayer. This would make it so regular they'd have to move it over to the National Museum of Art.

The papers was quoting Congressman Celler of New York as saying the other day that "if our government is to remain solvent, it must raise taxes, spend less, or do both." The thing that puzzles me about this quotation is how a feller that makes that much about arithmetic ever got elected to Congress. If we can elect a few more in 1960 that seems to know how to add and subtract, it might go down in our history as the year Congress discovered the barrel had a bottom to it.

Another interesting item from Washington this week was the one about a group of government clerks starting a social organization and calling it the "Coffee And Confusion Club." They might run out of coffee one in a while, but they'll always have enough confusion to operate 100 per cent.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

George Young Will Attend Marketing Assembly Dec. 12

Leaving Belle Glade this month for Kansas City, Mo., to take part in the preceding-nation's Industry Trade Association Assembly of the nation's livestock auction markets will be George Young, Glades Livestock Market Assn. state director in the auction market's national business trade association.

The assembly staged by the National Association of Livestock Auction Markets with offices in Kansas City, will be held Dec. 12, 13. It is described by association officials as the semi-annual meeting of the governing bodies of the trade group and an industry-wide meeting for discussion of market progress and development.

The national board of directors is made up of four nationally elected officers, 14 district directors and a state director from each state. It is the governing board of association operations and services. Directors are elected annually each year in June at the annual convention.

Trade association leaders have predicted 1959 as a record year in volume through the nation's 2,200 public livestock auction markets. They have likewise forecast the decade of the 1960's as seeing the greatest expansion in market facilities and services yet experienced.

One of the principal objectives of the assembly, it is reported, is to effect a further means to publicize the "nationally certified" livestock auction markets and the industry code of business standards under which they operate within the framework of the Federal Packers and Stockyards Act.

That act is referred to as a financial and regulatory and fair trade practices law governing livestock transactions. It is administered by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

TB Sales Mount New Report Shows

The week of November 30 through December 5 has been proclaimed "Christmas Seal Week" throughout the country, according to Emmett S. Roberts, County Christmas Seal Campaign Chairman for Palm Beach County Tuberculosis & Health Association.

On Sunday most churches used Christmas Seal programs for their order of worship or brought to the attention of their congregations the importance of the work financed by Christmas Seals, Mr. Roberts said.

Christmas Seal Booths will open in markets of the county, Monday, November 30, manned by volunteers from many clubs and organizations, to make Seals available to the persons who did not receive them through the mail or those who may wish more seals for their holiday mailing, Mr. Roberts added.

Mayors of West Palm Beach, Palm Beach, Lake Worth, Delray Beach, Belle Glade and Jupiter have each issued proclamations urging all to support the Christmas Seal Campaign so that campaign funds against TB may be maintained and further progress made against this catching disease.

Meanwhile the total of the Seal Campaign to date is $17,274.66 at the end of the second week. Total from cities in the Glades are as follows: Pahokee $106.00; Belle Glade, $238.00; Lake Harbor, $17.00; South Bay $74.00; Canal Point, $58.00; Pelican Lake, $8.00; Bryant $60.00.

New Parcel Post Rates Approved

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today that the Post Office Department is putting the new parcel post rate increases approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission into effect after Christmas.

The effective date will be February 1, 1960. Postal laws require the Postmaster General to seek an increase in parcel post rates whenever that service is not self-sustaining. In petitioning the ICC for the increase in November, 1958, Mr. Summerfield reported annual losses on parcel post were running about $88 million.

ICC announced it has consented to increases in parcel post rates averaging 17.1 per cent, or about $89 million a year.

This will be the first increase in parcel post rates in approximately 6 years. The last increase was in 1953, and since

College Students Here For Holidays

Most of the college students in the state were home for Thanksgiving and several from Alabama and Georgia. The kids were all happy to be home and were already looking forward to Christmas vacation which starts about Dec. 18 in most of the colleges.

Students from Troy State were Arlene Kirchman, Rodney Walker, Marsha Walker, Jeff Thomas, Lewis Buckner, Donna Mae Armstrong, and Charles Hayes. South Georgia Junior college, Billy Puckette and Eddie Lively; Murray State College, Bill Abel; Louisiana College, Frances Sloan; University of Florida, Dewitt Dism, Johnny Thomas, Mike Chisholm, Therry Williams, Douglas Kirchman, Carol Allen, Dan Jones, Sherry Mixson, Edward Humphries, Billy Tom Reese, Neal Livingston, Jerry Brent, Harry McDonald, Beverly Baker, and Larry Page. Florida Christian College, Wason Matthews and Tommy Lawson; Florida State University, Jimmy Webster, Jo Margaret Parson, Ouida Lanier, Lynn Corbin, Fred Mook, Stetson University, Molly Forsee, Charles Royal; University of Miami, Glenda Del; Florida Southern College, Bobby Jo Thomas.

ICC found that the rates proposed by the Postmaster General were necessary and reasonably adapted to insure the receipt of revenues from the service adequate to pay the costs of the service.

"The proposed rates," the ICC report noted, "will promote the development and maintenance of fourth class mail service adapted to the present needs and adaptable to the future needs of the post of the United States, and will promote adequate, economical and efficient fourth-class postal service at reasonable and equitable rates."

Postmaster General Summerfield praised the ICC action, and expressed gratification that the serious losses in postal revenues resulting from parcel post rate deficiencies will now be corrected. The rates will be put into effect after Christmas, with no increase in rates for the holiday mailers whose holiday budget funds would otherwise be affected by a rise before Christmas.

World Famous Writer Outlines Need For Fearless Free Press

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Home town America's newspapers are the last bulwark against the ever-increasing loss of freedom, Philip Wylie, internationally famous author, tells Pat and Bill Derus, right, pictured here following a talk at an annual scholastics award dinner at Florida State University. Derus heads a Chicago news syndicate servicing more than 5,000 newspapers.

Ricky, left, who helped initiate an unorthodox youth-publi-cized 1956 world trip that resulted in a best selling volume "The Innocent Ambassadors" bears his husband outline the steps by which the large daily press in losing its freedom as emphasis increases on money making, and less attention is given to free reporting of the news. Another Wylie book, "Generation of Vipers" published in 1942 was annotated this year and reissued by popular demand because of its amazingly accurate predictions of world events and Wylie's uncanny insight into human behavior and its influence in shaping the great issues of modern times. It is so thought provoking it is required reading in many colleges.

Objective of too many big city newspapers is not to give the news, but to peddle the most salable details of daily events, Wylie said. Press associations all over the world are busy sending in stories to fill front pages devoid of matter to feed morbid, shock-prone readers. Factual news and editorial comment are outgrown and ten to one by intimate and insignificant happenings of questionable value in the entertainment world and sports, he added.

It thus falls to the smaller newspapers to prevent complete loss of freedom's franchise, which they can lose as a trickle line loses its franchise when it's not used, Wylie continued. By accurate news reporting and representing over 1,600 clubs. Reports show a total of less than 5,000 adult and junior leaders assisting with 4-H Club work.

Training of additional leaders will be done by county or neighborhood groups, or individually, depending on county situations. The state staff will assist in the training program.

The leadership program has several goals: at least one adult leader for every organized 4-H Club, one leader for each 8 to 15 members, and an active junior or assistant leader in every club. Also, each adult 4-H leader should conduct at least one meeting per year.

How to work with young people or understanding youth, will be stressed in pilot county training programs. Key lay personnel in each county are working with Extension staffs to coordinate the selection of potential leaders.

Following a year's work in these six pilot counties, the methods used will be evaluated, and if successful, adopted to statewide use in the future.

The story of the Babe in the manger, the star of Bethlehem, and the three wise men is old but ever new. One cannot think of it without being struck with the rare beauty and simplicity of it all. Let us remember that Christmas is more than just a time for gifts, festivity and merrymaking. It is time for the fundamentals of God's love in sending His Son to earth. Therefore, may the Yuletide season first, be an occasion for the giving of more than material things. Let us give that which counts infinitely more . . . of ourselves.
